

In this story led by Valentina fairy discover that nothing is what it seems, that a picture can hide thousands of images and interpretations, because if we look beyond what our eyes perceive and look through the heart, we will make our imagination soar to unknown heights ..