

Asociación "Escritores a Escena"

The association, which settled down at "El Montacargas" in September and which collects and improves new and independent publishers, develops workshops, makes presentations of books, readings of dramas, etc., now presents a "cycle of imaginary interviews". An interviewer has a live-talk in front of the audience with a renowned author who already died. The first four persons on stage will be: Edgar Allan Poe, Virginia Woolf, Julio Cortázar and Franz Kafka. One person each Thursday. It takes 1 ½ hours plus thirty minutes for questions of the audience.
