

DIAS 18,19 Y 20 de septiembre, 20,30h

EL CABARET DE LA MUJER PAJARO (GALICIA)

Merges humor, poetry and music with songs in various languages. This original show, told from the point of view comic tribulations of an exotic character: Fevvers, the bird woman, played by Paku Granxa, little friend in a world of differences. He is joined on stage musicians Brandan Lorenzo (guitar) and Mark Dams (clarinet). Band Aid Productions uses the word music and dance in this new production directed by Willy Ether, which includes songs in German, Galician and even Japanese. This is a story between epic and crazy, the story of the life of the protagonist, in which the viewer will discover what lies behind his enigmatic character.