

The actors will introduce to children in the exotic and ancient Chinese empire through theater. The traditional story "The Nightingale" by Hans Christian Andersen is brought up to our date with a fresh start in honour of its 170th anniversary. A version full of humor and faithful to the original Danish story. Recommended from 4 years. "